PEANUT TRAIN.—The largest single consignment of real Southern peanuts sent over a Western railroad wended its way through Kentucky, Tuesday. There were 38 solid cars of peanuts, making an entire train. It was started from a point in Virginia and bound for Chicago. The entire cargo consisted of 8,200 sacks, weighed 676,000 pounds and was valued to the railroad company by the shippers at $47,500.

GOOD BOCK.—Now is the season for Bock Beer. When you want the very best, try a glass of the Lyon Beer. It is considered to be the best beer brewed, and if you drink it once you'll take no other.

Interesting Norwegian Custom. Men attending state balls in Norway are not left in doubt as to whether or not the women can be counted on for dancing. The custom of the court decrees that those women who intend to dance shall wear white, while those not desiring to trip the light fantastic toe shall appear in black. It is an idea which American men would like to see adopted.

A Hard Problem. A certain debating society is discussing the question as to which is the angrier—the husband who goes home and finds that the dinner is not ready or the wife who has dinner ready and whose husband does not come home. It is believed that the debate will end in a draw.

Provoking. "Yes, dear, he caught me in his arms"—
"How shocking!"
—"and was just going to kiss me!"
—"How awfully horrid!"
—"when ma came in the room."
"Oh, how provoking!"

A Little Glutton. Papa—Tommy, you mustn't eat so much. Everybody will be calling you a little "glutton." Do you know what that is?
Tommy—I suppose it's a big glutton's little boy.—Philadelphia Ledger.

During odd moments when not engaged in his duties as a "plain clothes" detective Patrolman Robert H. Hibbard, of New York city, found time to study law with such success that he retired from the force recently and will at once take up the practice of his profession. Hibbard is an LL. B., having completed courses in the New York university law school and the New York Law school. He was admitted to the bar in July, after serving eight years as a policeman.

Mercury-Vapor Lamps.

Mercury-vapor lamps produce a light, as is well known, that is greenish blue in color, and which produces an unpleasant effect, not inaptly described as "ghastly," on the faces of persons illuminated by it. This is because the spectrum of the light has no red in it. It has been proposed to add a red reflector or globe to correct this, but the experiment shows that the light is not changed in color, but obstructed.

When It Is Ready to Bake.

Bread is ready for the oven if, when touched with the finger, the dough springs back, leaving no dent. The old theory that bread must be kneaded stiff with flour in order to be good is not altogether reliable. It is much easier to work if mixed soft, rises quicker and is just as delicious as if made the old way.

Precocious Children.

John Stuart Mill was studying Greek at three, had practically mastered the language at seven, and a year later was acting as schoolmaster to his younger brothers and sisters. John Ruskin actually produced a manuscript work in three volumes before he reached his seventh birthday.

Speed.

I found the motorman an intelligent and courteous fellow.
"Would you like to drive a car at the rate of a hundred miles an hour?" I asked.
"Not unless I were passing people who were signalling me to stop," he replied.—Detroit Free Press.

A Child's Poetic Thought.

"Mamma," said the little seven-year-old girl in a North side flower garden, "do you know what the flowers are?"
"What do you think they are, dear?"
"Why, when God breaks up a rainbow he throws down the pieces and they light on the bushes!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A New Broom.

The broom will last twice as long if dipped in boiling water when new and left to stand in it until the water is cold. Hang by slipping the brush part between two nails close enough together to crowd the broom straws.

A Boss' Estimate.

"Do you think you are giving your city a good government?" asked the earnest man.
"Well," answered Mr. De Graft after some deliberation; "it's as good as money can buy."—Washington Star.

Must Be Some Mistake.

"They tell me that Guzzle has a perfect horror of water," remarked Tredway.
"O, I guess not," replied Brisbane.
"He buys stocks."—Detroit Free Press.

To Judge a Book.

When a book raises your spirit and inspires you with noble and courageous feelings, seek for no other rule to judge the work by; it is good, and made by a good workman.—Bruyere.

The Difference.

The difference between salary and wages is precisely the difference between accepting a job and getting a job.—Detroit Free Press.

Always Helpful.

Books are delightful when prosperity happily smiles; when adversity threatens, they are inseparable comforters.—Richard Angervyle.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY:—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce South Trimble as a candidate for re-election as Congressman from this district, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Kimball, of Fayette county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from Seventh District, subject to the action of the district convention to be held in the city of Lexington on Thursday, May 12, 1904.
